

CONTINUING DENTAL EDUCATION
School of Dentistry
University of Minnesota

Maximizing the World of Esthetic Dentistry

Friday
January 14, 2005

Hubert Humphrey Institute
West Bank, Minneapolis Campus

PROGRAM

- |       |  |                         |
|-------|--|-------------------------|
| 8:55  | Welcome and Introduction   | Dr. Michael Till |
| 9:00  | Occlusion and Esthetics   | Dr. Gerard Kugel |
|       | Advances in Adhesive Dentistry  |                         |
|       | Especially sixth generation and direct adhesive restorative materials and techniques |                         |
|       | Can we eliminate post-operative sensitivity by improving our bonding techniques?     |                         |
| 10:15 | Refreshment break  |                         |
| 10:30 | All Ceramic Alternative   |                         |
|       | What are our options in ceramic materials  | Dr. Kugel        |
|       | When should we use them  |                         |
| 11:30 | Questions and answers   | Dr. Kugel        |
| 12:00 | Luncheon (included)  |                         |
| 1:00  | Laminate Veneers  | Dr. Kugel        |
|       | Do's and don'ts  |                         |
|       | From preparation to cementation  |                         |
|       | Avoiding pitfalls  |                         |
| 2:30  | Refreshment break  |                         |
| 2:45  | Tooth whitening- in-office, light activated and over-the-counter              | Dr. Kugel        |
|       | -how do they work  |                         |
|       | -what is best for my patient   |                         |
|       | -What is the truth about light activated systems                                     |                         |
| 3:30  | Questions and Answers   | Dr. Kugel        |
| 4:00  | Adjourn  |                         |

Maximizing the World of Esthetic Dentistry
January 14, 2005
Program, page 2

GUEST SPEAKER

Gerard Kugel, D.M.D., M.S., Ph.D., Associate Dean for Research, and Professor of Prosthodontics and Operative Dentistry at Tufts University School of Dental Medicine. With an expertise in Clinical Research and Esthetic Dentistry, he is a reviewer for the New England Journal of Medicine, JADA, Journal of Esthetic Dentistry, Esthetic Technique and the Dental Advisor, and on the Editorial Board of Practical Periodontics and Aesthetic Dentistry, Contemporary Esthetics, Compendium, The Journal of Cosmetic Dentistry, and The Journal of Adhesive Dentistry. He is a Fellow in the American and International Colleges of Dentistry as well as the Academy of General Dentistry and the Academy of Dental Materials.

Dr. Kugel has published over 100 articles and 150 abstracts in the field of restorative materials and techniques. He has given over 200 lectures, both nationally and internationally. Dr. Kugel is a part of a group practice, the Boston Center for Oral Health, located in Back Bay Boston.

This program was funded in part by an unrestricted educational grant from Kerr Corporation.